Are you communicating with a public office holder in an attempt to influence a lobbying outcome?
No
You are not a lobbyist.
Yes
Are you being paid for doing so? Payment may be money, a contract, a promise to pay or anything else of value.
No
You are not a lobbyist.
Yes
Is the person you are attempting to influence:
• An MLA?
• An officer or employee of the government?
• A person appointed by cabinet or a minister to any office or body?
• An officer or employee of any government corporation?
• An officer or employee of a provincial entity?
No
You are not a lobbyist.
Yes
Is the intended outcome of your communication:
• To introduce, repeal or modify legislation, a bill or regulation?
• To develop, establish, change or end any program, policy or decision?
• To influence a decision to transfer interest in a government enterprise or to privatize services?
• To influence the awarding, amendment or termination of a contract, grant or financial benefit?
• To arrange a meeting between someone and a public office holder?
No
You are not a lobbyist.
Yes
Are you a paid employee, of an organization?
No
Are you lobbying on behalf of a client?
Yes
You are a consultant lobbyist.
Yes
Do you - either alone or together with others in the organization - spend at least 100 hours lobbying per year (including time spent preparing to lobby?
No
You are not a lobbyist.
Yes
You are an in-house lobbyist.